Working with Custom Sections

There are three reasons to add a Custom Section to your Custom CV

1. You want to add a descriptive paragraph to the CV
2. You have some things to add to the CV that are not part of My CV
3. You want to group things from different My CV sections into one section

Create a Custom Section

- Click the Add Custom Section button (top of CV) to begin the process
 - Or select a Custom Section that you created for a earlier Custom CV: Click Section Picker and select the custom section from the lower right
- Choose a format for this Custom Section
 - The format defines the structure: paragraph; list with years, etc.
 - There are six formats – click “Show more...” to see all six
 - Mouse over the folder icon to see the My CV sections like this format

- Type the header name you want to display and Click Create Section

Populate the Custom Section with information

There are two ways to add text to your Custom Section

1. Type text into the rows, adding new rows as necessary
 - a. Add new rows by clicking on the Add Row icon (appears on mouse over)

2. Import My CV items into a Custom Section

a. Click “Import My CV Items” to view sections from My CV

b. Click on a section name to view the items within that My CV section

c. Click on individual items to select

d. Click Import Rows button to import the selected items into the Custom Section

e. If you want, you can add a “Sub Header” and reorganize content as desired

f. You can also add new items (things not included in My CV)

g. Modify the Column Header text when appropriate

h. Click Save to close the Edit window

Select a format for the General Information section of the CV

Select one of three formats within the top section of the Custom CV:

You may want to deselect some of the the items within General Information to optimize the look of the CV

Format A:

Format B:
